

ROCHELLE CITY COUNCIL
REGULAR MEETING 06/13/11
INTRODUCTION OF NEW STAFF
Scott Rozanas – Manager of Business Development (Full-time)

Scott Rozanas, our new Manager of Business Development, is excited to join the City of Rochelle team and comes to us with over 20 years of experience in business administration, including project management and leadership roles.

He spent the past 13 years as Controller and Co-General Manager of Industrial Overlay, a small manufacturer in Rock Falls. During his tenure, Scott had managerial responsibility for finance/accounting, human resources, marketing/advertising and safety.

Prior to that, Scott spent 5 years working for Coldwell Banker Relocation in Schaumburg, where he obtained his real estate license and had significant exposure to real estate transactions and related issues.

Earlier in his career, Scott was a Captain in the United States Air Force, stationed in Grand Forks, North Dakota. There he was an ICBM Missile Crew Operations Officer, and also served in both their Training and Evaluation Branches.

Scott received his Bachelor's Degree in both Marketing and Human Resource Management from the University of Wisconsin, and his MBA from the University of North Dakota.

Scott and his wife Jody reside in rural Ogle County. They have three (3) children. Scott is active in his church, where he also holds several leadership roles.
