Re: 1240 North Seventh Street

Alan,

This will confirm that on February 23, 2012, I inspected the old Wal-Mart building at 1240 North Seventh Street at your request to determine whether it complies with current City codes. My inspection revealed that the building does not comply with current City codes in certain respects. A detailed memorandum regarding my inspection, with photographs, was provided to Chris Limas in a separate memo. Should you need anything further, please let me know.

Regards
