To Rochelle City Council and City Manager,

The Rochelle Community Action Network (CAN) is seeking council approval to host a food truck fair. We would like to host the event to raise funds for CAN by charging the food trucks a $100 registration fee. We plan to recruit as many local food trucks first. The event will be held on Saturday, April 29th, from 11:00 am to 3:00 pm. CAN supports the annual Christmas Shopping Trip and the Backpack Program for low-income Rochelle children.

Ralfie's BBQ, Hick's BBQ and El Pastor Taco 1 have confirmed their participation in the event thus far.

The CAN Board respectfully requests the closure of the following parking lots on April 29th:

- Lot # 8 (lot south of the Gazebo on 4th Avenue and Main Street)

We are excited about the opportunity to host this new event in the downtown and appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Rochelle CAN Board
